Amalgamated Life Insurance Company Earns 44th Consecutive A.M. Best “A” (Excellent) Rating

White Plains, NY...October 16, 2019

Amalgamated Life Insurance Company (www.amalgamatedlife.com), a leading provider of comprehensive insurance solutions, has again attained the “A” (Excellent) rating from A.M. Best, a full-service credit rating organization dedicated to serving the insurance industry. It is the company’s 44th consecutive “A” rating attesting to its strong fiscal position. For plan sponsors and their members, as well as the broker and consultant community representing Amalgamated Life’s products, this third-party confirmation of the company’s financial strength is an affirmation that they are working with a sound business partner.

Amalgamated Life Insurance Company President and CEO Paul Mallen stated, “We make a conscious effort every day to maintain best practices that enable us to achieve our mission of helping working people and their families achieve financial security. Through prudent financial policies and procedures, strong product development and high quality customer service, we have been able to remain a fiscally strong organization.”

In addition to adhering to its high standards of operation, Amalgamated Life has a vibrant marketing and sales effort with a focus on expanding its suite of market responsive insurance and benefit solutions. Over the past two years, it has added to its portfolio a specialty drug cost management service, identity management and credit monitoring service, and a new voluntary portable group level term life insurance product.
